

Student's Name

UVF Student ID Number

You applied for and were granted independent student status for the academic year. If your extenuating circumstances that previously permitted us to override your dependency status have not changed, please submit the items below to reaffirm your independent student status. Renewals submitted without the required documentation will not be reviewed.

1. A signed letter from you reaffirming that your extenuating circumstances have not changed
2. Documentation from a disinterested third party (case worker, pastor, law enforcement professional, doctor, etc.) regarding the current status of your relationship or contact with your parent(s). This documentation should be on official letterhead and contain an original signature.

Upon review of the documentation received, additional documentation may be requested.
If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to call us 610-917-1475.
