

INTERCULTURAL STUDIES - INDIVIDUALIZED

BACHELOR OF ARTS
PROGRAM (121 CREDITS)

PURPOSE

The individualized major provides a flexible and adaptive program specifically tailored to the student's needs. Students will work with their advisor to select courses that combine to provide a unique synthesis of resources and skills to fulfill the dreams and callings God has given them. The individualized courses would then be approved by the ICS department chair, and subject to annual review with the student's faculty advisor. Courses totaling 24 credits can be selected from various programs offered across the University of Valley Forge catalog, with specific measurable goals set by the advisor and department chair.
